

Community Projects

Some highlights!

Campaigns to value and protect buildings in Peckham town centre Campaign to protect 98 – 104 Peckham High Street (18th century townscape), and Akbar Khan's Historic England Angel Award for conservation of the amazing roof "with a thousand lenses".

NO. 104 PECKHAM HIGH STREET IS UNDER THREAT

BEHIND THIS EVERYDAY FRONTAGE, NOs. 98-104 PECKHAM HIGH STREET IS A GROUP OF RARE EARLY 18TH CENTURY BUILDINGS.

THERE IS A CURRENT PLANNING APPLICATION TO DEMOLISH NO. 104 PLEASE GO ON SOUTHWARK COUNCIL'S PLANNING WEBSITE AND OBJECT https://www.sout

APPLICATION NO. 20/AP/1158

OBJECT BY WEDNESDAY 10.06.20 iF POSSIBLE BUT AFTER THAT DATE IS VALID TOO.

NO. 104 PECKHAM HIGH STREET. HELP SAVE THIS BUILDING

2019: Local Buildings That You Love

Community workshop on local listing, in partnership with Peckham Vision, inviting people to nominate local buildings that they care about, followed by a discussion of Historic England's criteria for local listing

Family History Trail

To be enjoyed as an adventure by families with primary-school aged children. Pick up a paper copy, see our website https:// peckhamheritage.org. uk/peckham-historytrail-a-walk-forfamilies/ or scan here

Stalls and fetes Meeting people and sharing information and opinions at Peckham Rye Park Fete and Brimmington Park Fare

visit peckhamheritage.org.uk PeckhamHeritage email clairephrp@gmail.com

Community Projects

Some highlights!

Polglaze photos with Southwark Archives Phil Polglaze is one of Peckham's unsung portrait and community photographers. The PHRP supported Southwark Archives to digitise his photos, and the first sets of images will be published online in 2022 at boroughphotos.org

Raising awareness

Have a look at our website and YouTube channel for our talks and films

2017: Peckham Streets: a photographic history with Chris Scales / The Peckham Society

The THI supported Peckham Streets: a photographic history, a display in the Old Waiting Room at

Peckham Rye Station curated by Chris Scales, with an accompanying book published by the Peckham Society

Traditional Buildings

A full-day event at all Saints Church Hall, Blenheim Grove, with talks, demonstrations and information stalls relating to traditional brick-built buildings

visit peckhamheritage.org.uk @PeckhamHeritage email clairephrp@gmail.com

